

Holy Wednesday: "The World must know that I love the Father"

Holy Wednesday April 8, 2020 7am Guidelines Passages:

Matthew 26:14-25.

One of the Twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said, "What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?" They paid him thirty pieces of silver, and from that time on he looked for an opportunity to hand him over.

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples approached Jesus and said, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

He said, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The teacher says, "My appointed time draws near; in your house I shall celebrate the Passover with my disciples.'""

The disciples then did as Jesus had ordered, and prepared the Passover.

When it was evening, he reclined at table with the Twelve.

And while they were eating, he said, "Amen, I say to you, one of you will betray me."

Deeply distressed at this, they began to say to him one after another, "Surely it is not I, Lord?"

He said in reply, "He who has dipped his hand into the dish with me is the one who will betray me.

The Son of Man indeed goes, as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed. It would be better for that man if he had never been born."

Then Judas, his betrayer, said in reply, "Surely it is not I, Rabbi?" He answered, "You have said so."

John 17:26

²⁶ I made known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them."

John 14:31

³¹ but the world must know that I love the Father and that I do just as the Father has commanded me. Get up, let us go.

Reflection Questions:

1. Does my love build unity?
2. What is Jesus telling me today as I reflect on His words of love?
